THE NATIONAL WAR COLLEGE
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

6 June 1960

Dear Mr. Dulles:

• This is to advise you of the administrative arrangements for your lecture to the Defense Strategy Seminar-1960 at The National War College on 20 July 1960.

Our morning session will begin with your lecture scheduled at 8:45 a.m. Usually, our lectures are of approximately forty-five or fifty minutes duration after which there will be a brief intermission. Thereafter, the members of the Seminar will reassemble in the auditorium for a question period lasting about twenty minutes. After another brief intermission, the members of the Seminar will reassemble in small discussion groups for the purpose of further exploring the subject for the day. We cordially invite you to sit in with one of these groups.

We would also like to have you as our guest at a luncheon, scheduled about noon at the Officers' Club at Fort McNair. A group from both the Seminar staff and class will attend the luncheon.

The enclosed draft copy of the Seminar Curriculum is for your information. The topic for 20 July is outlined on pages 46, 47, and 48.

Members of the Defense Strategy Seminar will have security clearance through SECRET. You should have no concern as to how freely you may speak during your lecture or the question and answer period. All of your remarks will be held in strictest confidence and will not be attributed to you, by members of the Seminar, outside of The National War College. No members of the press will be present.

Subject to your concurrence, a transcript will be made of your lecture but not of the questions and answers. In the event your material is unclassified, and if you have no objections, it would be desirable to furnish each student with a copy of your presentation. You will be afforded the opportunity to edit the transcript.

If you have a manuscript of your lecture, we would like to be advised in advance as to whether or not we could be furnished a copy of it in order to obviate a transcription.

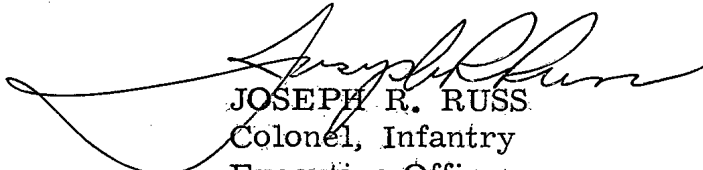

We will prepare any maps, graphs, charts, or other visual materials required, if you will let us know your desires in this matter.

In order that you may have a brief visit with the Commandant before your lecture, I suggest that you plan to arrive at the College about 8:25 a.m. If you will advise me where you wish to be met, I shall be happy to send a car to bring you to the College on the morning of your lecture.

Enclosed is a requisites form for your convenience. We would appreciate receiving it at the earliest practicable date.

We are looking forward to having you with us.

Sincerely yours,

JOSEPH R. RUSS
Colonel, Infantry
Executive Officer
